

English B Advanced (9)

Students develop their reading, writing, oral communication, visual, and analytical skills through guiding questions derived from the five Areas of Interaction of the Middle Years Program. They examine a range of texts including novels, short stories, poetry, drama, non-fiction and visual media, developing an awareness of the purpose, audience, and register and apply this knowledge to their own visual, written and oral communication. Ongoing assessment takes place through a variety of tasks, including the analysis of written and visual texts, reading comprehension, oral presentations, creative writing, and essays.

English B Standard (9)

Students develop their reading, writing, oral communication, visual, and thinking skills through guiding questions derived from the five Areas of Interaction of the Middle Years Program. They explore a variety of texts including novels, short stories, poetry, drama, non-fiction and visual media, developing an awareness of the purpose, audience, and register and apply this knowledge to their own visual, written and oral communication. Ongoing assessment takes place through a variety of tasks, including the study of written and visual texts, reading comprehension, oral presentations, creative writing, paragraph and essay writing.